BYLAWS OF IMAM MAHDI ISLAMIC EDUCATION CENTER, INC.

ARTICLE I NAME

Section 1. Name. The name of the organization is Imam Mahdi Islamic Education Center, Inc. (hereinafter, “IMIEC”).

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

Section 1. Principal Office. The principal office and place of worship of IMIEC is located at 2406 Putty Hill Ave., Parkville, MD 21234 or such other location as shall be approved by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE III PURPOSES AND POWERS

Section 1. Purposes and Powers. IMIEC is organized in accordance with Section 5-301, et seq. of the Corporations and Associations Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended. The affairs and activities of IMIEC shall be carried out at all times in accordance with the terms set forth in its Articles of Incorporation and these bylaws (“Bylaws”), and in conformity with all applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The organization has not been formed for the making of any profit, or personal financial gain. The assets and income of the organization shall not be distributable to, or benefit the trustees, directors, or officers or other individuals. The assets and income shall only be used to promote corporate purposes as described below. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be deemed to prohibit the payment of reasonable compensation to employees and independent contractors for services provided for the benefit of the organization. This organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax. The organization shall not endorse, contribute to, work for, or otherwise support (or oppose) a candidate for public office. The purpose of the organization is the operation of a Non-Profit Religious Organization. The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 2. Active Volunteer Members. IMIEC Oversight Committee members, Executive Committee volunteers, and Executive Officers must be registered active volunteer members, eighteen years of age or older in good standing.

Section 3. Status of Good Standing. Good standing status is defined as members who have continuous association with IMIEC and known to the community for good character for a minimum of one year, have never been convicted of a criminal offence, being a devotee of the religion of Islam, the teachings of the Holy Qur'an and the path of the Blessed Household of Prophet Mohammad (peace be upon them), and believe in IMIEC aims and objectives.

Section 4. Executive Board. IMIEC Executive Board collectively consists of Executive Committee volunteers and its elected Executive Officers.

Section 5. Voting Right. Voting right to elect the Executive Officers is reserved for members in good standing and paid membership dues for a minimum of one year period.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. Number of Trustees. The organization shall be managed by a Board of Trustees consisting of 5 members ("Trustee(s)").

Section 2. Board of Trustees' Term of Office. The Trustees are the original founders of IMIEC who remain in power and shall serve as active Trustees with no term-limit. A qualified successor must be designated by a Trustee member. There are no term limits.

Section 3. Chairman. The Board of Trustees shall appoint one of its members to be the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees, unless otherwise provided by the Trustees, and shall perform other duties and shall have such other powers as the Trustees may determine from time to time.

1. Vice Chairman. The Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees shall be appointed by the Chairman from among the members of the Board of Trustees to perform the duties of the Chairman in the absence of the Chairman to assist Trustees in the discharge of its leadership duties.

Section 4. Successor Trustee. Each Trustee shall designate a successor within a reasonable period of his/her appointment. In the event that any Trustee fails to designate a successor, the successor for such Trustee shall be designated by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees. The successor will replace the Trustee in the event of his/her death, resignation, incapacitation, or approved leave of absence. Trustees may change their successor by submitting a written notification to the Board of Trustees. The successor must meet the eligibility requirements as contained herein. Designated successors must be approved by a majority vote of the full Board of Trustees. Once a successor becomes a permanent member of the Board of Trustees, he/she shall follow similar guidelines and nominate a new successor for approval by the Board of Trustees.

Section 5. Procedures. The vote of a majority of the Trustees present at a properly called meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law or by these bylaws for a particular resolution. A Trustee of the organization who is present at a meeting of the Board of Trustees at which action on any governing matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless their dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting. The Board of Trustees shall keep written minutes of its proceedings in its permanent records.

Section 6. Removal / Vacancies. A Trustee may be subject to removal with or without cause, including if any of his/her actions contradict the Bylaws, at a meeting called for that purpose. This removal can be done only by the unanimous decision of the full Board of Trustees, excluding the subject Trustee. In the event of a tie, the Trustees Chairman's vote will prevail. Any vacancy that occurs on the Board of Trustees, whether by death, resignation, removal or any other cause, shall be filled within 90 days by a majority vote of the full Board of Trustees. In the event of a tie, the Trustees Chairman's vote will prevail. A Trustee elected to fill a vacancy shall serve the remaining term of his or her predecessor, or until a successor has been elected and qualified. Resignation shall not discharge a Trustee of any obligation or duty outside of the Board of the Trustees. A Trustee may submit a written resignation at any time to the Board of Trustees; however, the majority of the members of the full Board of Trustees must approve the acceptance of such resignation.

Section 7. General Authority. The Board of Trustees shall be the decision-making body for IMIEC to execute and oversee the operation of and activities associated with the IMIEC committees and IMIEC organization including but not limited to the operation of the IMIEC-Mehr School which is designed to provide religious and cultural education to the youth members of the community. The Board of Trustees can amend these bylaws when/if necessary.

Section 8. IMIEC Committees. To the extent permitted by law, the Board of Trustees may delegate responsibilities to the following two committees, temporary or permanent, and designate the duties, powers and authorities of such committees. Nothing contained in these bylaws shall prohibit the Board of Trustees from paying reasonable compensation to employ members for services provided to benefit the organization.

1. Oversight Committee (O.C.). The Board of Trustees may appoint any number of its members, and additional qualified trusted volunteer members of the community to create a 7-member Oversight Committee, temporary or permanent, to review issues and manage the operation of IMIEC programs. The Oversight Committee members consist of a combination of the Board of Trustees members and the qualified members elected by Trustees.
 - a. Oversight Committee members coordinate with Executive Committee to manage and implement approved plans and decisions.
2. Executive Committee (E.C.). The Executive Committee volunteers consist of Officers and Executive specialty groups. All Executive Committee volunteers must complete IMIEC Volunteer Form and state their preferred area of contribution. All community members, in good standing, eighteen years of age or older, are eligible to volunteer. Officers will be nominated and will be voted for election by the members of the community for specific positions in an election facilitated by Oversight Committee. Together, Officers and Executive volunteers, work with Oversight Committee members as necessary to execute IMIEC daily tasks and responsibilities to accomplish IMIEC goals and objectives.

- a. The Oversight and Executive committees shall perform work specifically approved by the Board of Trustees and provide reports or recommendations to the Board of Trustees following each committee meeting. These committees have authority only with regard to the specific authorities and responsibilities granted by the Board of Trustees. Therefore, regardless of any Board of Trustees resolution, committees may not:
 - 1) Take any final action on matters that require Board of Trustees approval;
 - 2) Fill vacancies on the Board of Trustees or in any committee which has the authority of the Board of Trustees;
 - 3) Amend or repeal bylaws or adopt new bylaws;
 - 4) Amend or repeal any resolution of the Board of Trustees;
 - 5) Appoint any other committees of the Board of Trustees or the members of these committees;
 - 6) Expend IMIEC funds except for an expressly Board of Trustees authorized purpose expressly authorized by the Board of Trustees; or
 - 7) Approve any transaction greater than $1,000 USD to which IMIEC is a party.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. An annual community meeting is facilitated by Oversight Committee for all community members to participate once each calendar year at IMIEC's principal office and place of worship for the transaction of IMIEC organizational needs as may properly come before the meeting. Prior written notice of at least ten (10) days of the annual meeting shall be provided to Members. However, failure to provide notice to any Member shall not invalidate the meeting or any action taken therein. The outcome of the annual meeting shall be reported to the Board of Trustees within two weeks after the meeting.

Section 2. Regular Meeting. The Board of Trustees, Oversight Committee, and Executive Committee Officers shall hold regular meetings throughout the calendar year for transacting such business as may be deemed appropriate. If applicable, the purpose of the regular meetings includes the selection of the Oversight Committee members by Trustees. Prior written notice of at least ten (10) days of the regular meetings shall be provided to Members. However, failure to provide notice to any Member shall not invalidate the meeting or any action taken therein.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be requested by any member of the Board of Trustees, Oversight Committee, and Executive Committee by providing five (5) days' written notice by email communication, electronic communication, or (10) days by ordinary United States mail, effective when mailed. This notice period may be waived, in the event of an emergency, at the discretion of the Board of Oversight Committee. Minutes of the meeting shall be provided to the Board of Trustees within two weeks after the meeting. A special meeting of Board of Trustees is not required to be held at a geographic location if the meeting is held by means of the internet or other electronic communications technology in a manner pursuant to which the participants have the opportunity to read or hear the proceedings substantially concurrent with the occurrence of the proceedings, note on matters submitted to the members, pose questions, and make comments.

Section 4. Notice. Written notice of all meetings shall be provided under this section or as otherwise required by law. The notice shall state the place, date, and hour of the meeting, and if for a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting. Such notice shall be provided to the Board of Trustees of record via email communication, electronic communication, or (10) days by ordinary United States mail, effective when mailed, at the address shown on the corporate books, at least five (5) days prior to the meeting.

Section 5. Place of Meeting. Meetings shall be held at the organization's principal office and place of worship unless otherwise stated in the notice. Unless the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws provide otherwise, the Board of Trustees may permit any or all Trustees to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all participants may simultaneously hear each other during this meeting. A Trustee participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 6. Quorum. A majority of the Trustees shall constitute the quorum at a meeting. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Trustees may adjourn the meeting to another time without further notice. If a quorum is represented at an adjourned meeting, any IMIEC related needs may be discussed that might have been discussed at the meeting as originally scheduled. The Trustees present at a meeting represented by a quorum may continue IMIEC related discussions until adjournment, even if the withdrawal of some Trustees results in representation of less than a quorum.

Section 7. Adverse Interest. The nomination of Executive Committee volunteers for Officer positions must be approved by the Board of Trustees prior to being open for election by community members with voting right in the voting event. The Board of Trustees reserves the right to approve or reject the nomination of any of the nominees before public election of the Executive Officers. In the determination of a quorum in voting, the disclosed adverse interest of Trustees can disqualify the nominee and invalidate his or her appointment to the Office.

Section 8. Informal Action. Any action required to be taken, or which may be taken, at a meeting, may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the Trustees with respect to the subject matter of the vote.

ARTICLE VI COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND OFFICERS

Section 1. Oversight Committee Members. The Oversight Committee members, including its Trustee members, are elected by the Board of Trustees to serve a three (3) year term or until an election is required by the Board of Trustees.
